CoreLogic, a global property information, analytics and data-enabled solutions provider has recognized Cognizant as a Strategic Service Provider of the Year at a recent awards ceremony.

Over the course of a seven-year relationship, the Cognizant account team has most recently accomplished a significant service consolidation and automation project that provides intelligent content analysis for CoreLogic. The team continues to support CoreLogic and their application transformation and migration to Pivotal Cloud Foundry and the public cloud.

“We are honored to receive the Strategic Service Provider of the Year award from CoreLogic,” said Prasad Chintamaneni, President, Global Industries & Consulting, Cognizant. “We are committed to ensuring that CoreLogic remains an innovative leader in the real estate data analytics industry and we look forward to continuing to build on the success of our relationship.”
