Cognizant’s Anne Neal Named a Healthcare Businesswomen’s Association 2020 Luminary

Cognizant’s Anne Neal, Vice President, Product Management Associate was recently recognized as a Healthcare Businesswomen’s Association (HBA) 2020 Luminary. Recognizing women in the healthcare industry who serve as role models within their company, Luminaries are “a shining example of transformational leadership”. Neal was selected by the HBA for her impactful results of advancing women’s careers and her dedication to healthcare.

“It’s an honor to be chosen as an HBA Luminary,” said Neal. “Over the course of my career, I’ve had many opportunities to help other women shape their future and grown their skills to become valued contributors within the healthcare field.”
