Cognizant Named Among “America’s Best Employers for New Grads” by Forbes

Cognizant has been named to the Forbes list of America’s Best Employers for New Grads 2020.

Forbes and research firm Statista selected America’s Best Employers for New Grads based on a survey of more than 20,000 young professionals across the U.S. Participants were asked to rate their own employer based on the likelihood that they would recommend it to others. They were also asked to recommend other employers within their industry. The survey included questions on relevant topics such as Atmosphere & Development, Image, Working Conditions, Salary & Wage, and Workplace & Diversity. The complete study methodology can be found here.

“We know the value of hiring outstanding entry level talent from colleges and universities, and are proud to be named a Best Employer for New Grads,” said Becky Schmitt, Chief People Officer, Cognizant. “As these graduates bring their fresh thinking and expertise to help us shape what’s next in digital, we are committed to creating a work experience where they can thrive. We provide a variety of opportunities for them to develop their skills, gain mentorship and find fulfillment in their career at Cognizant.”
