Cognizant’s Vanessa Pawlak Named to Consulting Magazine's Top 25 Consultants of 2020

Cognizant’s Vanessa Pawlak, Regulatory Compliance and Government Programs Practice Leader, was recently named to Consulting Magazine’s list of Top 25 Consultants of 2020 for Excellence in Healthcare.

Consulting Magazine’s list of 25 winners identifies consultants who distinguish themselves among their peers and effect change through their roles. Board-certified in health compliance and health data privacy, Pawlak specializes in government-sponsored health programs. In her 16+ years of experience, she has worked on large-scale transformation and turnarounds across governance, administration, operational, financial, and clinical domains. She is also regularly published in leading healthcare industry publications and speaks frequently at industry conferences.

“Being recognized as a Top 25 Consultant means I work with a phenomenal practice of people and have an incredible team,” says Pawlak. “Nobody achieves this award on his or her own, and I’m honored to represent all of our high-performing staff members and leaders.”
