Cognizant Wins 2021 MuleSoft Americas Practice Development Partner of the Year Award

For the second consecutive year, Cognizant has won the Americas Practice Development Partner of the Year Award from MuleSoft. It is the company's sixth award for its partnership with MuleSoft.

Leading organizations in the MuleSoft Partner Program provide consulting and services for MuleSoft's Anypoint Platform™, the world's No. 1 integration and API platform. The Practice Development Partner of the Year Award identifies those partners with the highest level of practice development, measured in total certifications and annual growth in certifications. This year, Cognizant achieved 103% year-over-year growth in certifications, demonstrating its commitment to helping clients accelerate their digital transformation using an API-led approach.

"MuleSoft is fundamental to bridging disparate technologies, which is a critical need for so many of our clients," said Mark Martinet, Vice President, Strategic Partnership Group, Cognizant. "We are excited and encouraged by receiving this award, as it underscores how Cognizant continues to invest in our people and our partnership with MuleSoft. With the highest level of training and certifications, we can be the best at integrating our clients' disparate systems while also future-proofing them so that new technologies can be adopted quickly and easily."

"We are excited to be named the Mulesoft Americas Partner of the Year for the second year in a row," added Steve Boettcher, Vice President, Global Salesforce Practice Leader, Cognizant. "We are honored to be recognized as a leading partner in this world-class integration platform and look forward to continuing to help our clients unlock value in their digital transformation journey."
