Cognizant Wins Multiple Brandon Hall Group HCM Excellence Awards

Cognizant has won 42 Brandon Hall Group HCM Excellence Awards, including 19 Gold, 11 Silver and 12 Bronze awards. The wins span categories including Best Use of Blended Learning, Best Learning Program Supporting a Change Transformation Business Strategy, Best Advance in Leadership Development, Best Use of Learning Technology, and more.

Brandon Hall Group operates the largest and longest running awards program in Human Capital Management. As an independent HCM research and analyst firm, they conduct studies which provide organizations strategic insights for executives and practitioners responsible for growth and business results.

The 2021 Brandon Hall Group HCM Excellence Awards were given for work in Learning and Development, Talent Management, Leadership Development, Talent Acquisition, Human Resources, Sales Performance, Diversity, Equity & Inclusion, and Future of Work. Entries were evaluated by a panel of veterans, independent senior industry experts, Brandon Hall Group analysts and executives based upon criteria, including fit the need, design of the program, functionality, innovation, and overall measurable benefits.

“At Cognizant, we are focused on providing resources and support to help our associates be at their best,” said Chief People Officer Becky Schmitt. “We’re proud that this recognition from Brandon Hall highlights the innovative ways we are empowering our people to learn, lead and grow their careers with our growing company.”

Award winners are scheduled to be honored at Brandon Hall Group’s HCM Excellence Conference early next year.
