Cognizant Wins “Best Overall Corporate Disclosure” in 3rd Annual US Transparency Awards

Cognizant has received top honors in the 2021 US Transparency awards for corporate disclosure documents. Recognized as “Best Overall in Corporate Disclosure,” Cognizant was ranked highest of the S&P 250 publicly traded companies rated in the annual competition sponsored by Labrador, an independent agency specializing in corporate disclosure documents and compliance communications.

“It is a great honor to be recognized as Best Overall for our transparency and disclosure. We seek to provide transparent and effective communication for our investors, and we strive to be a trusted partner to all our stakeholders, demonstrating exemplary governance throughout our business practices,” said John Kim, EVP and General Counsel, Cognizant.

The awards were determined based on 148 criteria, examining the quality and completeness of annual proxy statements, annual reports on Form 10-K, investor relations websites, codes of conduct, and plain language award for proxy statements.
