

Cognizant Donates $750,000 to Southern California Wildfire Relief Efforts

Company supporting national and local response organizations to help communities affected by wildfires

TEANECK, NJ – Jan. 16, 2025 – Cognizant (NASDAQ: CTSH) today announced $750,000 in donations to support Southern California wildfire relief and rebuilding efforts. The four contributions will provide community resiliency aid and disaster response resources to support first responders and those in need.

The $750,000 commitment will support the following disaster-relief partners and their efforts:

- California Community Foundation will provide long term recovery grants to organizations and individuals.
- YMCA of Metropolitan Los Angeles is gathering and distributing supplies and offering temporary housing amenities and childcare.
- World Central Kitchen is offering immediate relief by providing food to those in need and first responders.
- The Salvation Army is collecting clothing, cleaning and rebuilding supplies, and food.

“It is heartbreaking to see the devastation of the ongoing wildfires, and our thoughts are with everyone impacted by this tragedy,” said Surya Gummadi, EVP and President, Cognizant Americas. “We are grateful to the heroic first responders for their courage and tireless efforts in the face of this disaster. Cognizant is committed to supporting communities with aid and resources to help individuals and families rebuild and will continue to support the communities where our associates work and live.”

About Cognizant

Cognizant (Nasdaq: CTSH) engineers modern businesses. We help our clients modernize technology, reimagine processes and transform experiences so they can stay ahead in our fast-changing world. Together, we're improving everyday life. See how at www.cognizant.com or @cognizant.

<https://news.cognizant.com/2025-01-16-Cognizant-Donates-750,000-to-Southern-California-Wildfire-Relief-Efforts>