

Cognizant Hosts Investor Day to Discuss Long-Term Growth Strategy for the Next Wave of AI-Driven Technology Transformation

- Board approves $2 billion increase to share repurchase authorization
- Company adds $500 million to 2025 share repurchase plan, bringing expected total to $1.1 billion

TEANECK, N.J., March 25, 2025 /PRNewswire/ -- Cognizant (Nasdaq: CTSH) will today host an Investor Day, beginning at 1:00 p.m. ET. At the event, members of Cognizant's executive leadership team will outline the Company's progress against its strategic priorities and unveil its long-term growth strategy. Participants will also have an opportunity to hear from top clients and partners about Cognizant's differentiated capabilities supporting their AI journeys, and to experience demonstrations of several of Cognizant's AI-enabled platforms.

"Cognizant is well positioned to lead in the next wave of AI-driven technology transformation," said CEO Ravi Kumar S. "We have achieved significant progress over the past two years accelerating growth, becoming an employer of choice, and simplifying our operations. We believe we are now poised to build on this momentum and return to the Winner's Circle. We are confident that Cognizant's differentiated capabilities and strategic investments in AI and embedded engineering will enhance our ability to capture outsized growth in the expanding IT services market. Investor Day is an important opportunity to share our vision for the future and how we plan to create long-term shareholder value."

Kumar added, "Given our confidence in our strategy and future prospects, we are pleased to announce that the Board approved a $2 billion increase to our existing share repurchase authorization, and we now expect to repurchase $1.1 billion of shares in 2025, an increase of $500 million over our prior expectation."

At today's event, Cognizant will discuss:

- Management's strategy to drive a new phase of value creation
  - Amplify talent through upskilling initiatives and expanding learning infrastructure
  - Scale innovation by building platforms and solutions for the AI era
  - Accelerate growth by leading in AI/gen AI, growing in priority industries and geographies and strengthening capabilities in high-growth adjacencies
- Significant market opportunity across the three vectors of AI transformation
  - Vector 1: Enabling hyper-productivity across enterprises
  - Vector 2: Industrializing AI
  - Vector 3: Agentifying the enterprise
- Investments in technology, domain expertise, partnerships, talent and operational modernization that position Cognizant to win in an expanding market and drive long-term growth
- Details on Cognizant's plans to grow market share and return to the Winner's Circle, including improved relative revenue performance, margin enhancements, and its balanced capital allocation framework, all of which the Company believes will drive shareholder value

Return of Capital to Shareholders

On March 24, 2025, the Board of Directors approved an increase of $2 billion to the amount authorized under the Company's existing stock repurchase program. With this increase, as of March 24, 2025, there is approximately $3.1 billion remaining under the share repurchase authorization. For 2025, the Company is increasing its share repurchase expectation by $500 million to $1.1 billion. The Company reiterates its long-term capital allocation framework, including the flexibility to pursue strategic acquisitions.
