Belcan Named Supplier of the Year by GE Aerospace

Cincinnati, Ohio – April 14, 2025 – Belcan, LLC (a Cognizant company), a global supplier of design, software, manufacturing, supply chain, information technology, and digital engineering solutions to the aerospace, defense, space, automotive, industrial, marine, and government services markets, today announced that it has been named Supplier of the Year by GE Aerospace. The Supplier of the Year award recognizes the business that exemplifies excellence in all key aspects of a valued supplier, including safety, quality, delivery, innovation, and partnership, and Belcan was selected among over 250 suppliers.

"We are incredibly honored to receive this award, which is a testament to Belcan's exceptional technical capabilities and commitment to engineering better outcomes for our customers," said Lance Kwasniewski, CEO of Belcan. "I am grateful to our talented team members who have worked tirelessly to support GE Aerospace and deliver tremendous value and significant productivity gains. Belcan is proud to play a key role in GE Aerospace's success and we look forward to continuing our collaborative efforts."

Belcan was presented with the award at the GE Supplier Symposium Awards Dinner in Cincinnati, Ohio on March 5, 2025, marking the first supplier symposium held in over 5 years.

For over 55 years, Belcan's partnership with GE Aerospace has been built on a foundation of earned trust and unparallelled industry expertise. With Belcan's headquarters in Cincinnati, Ohio, a delivery center in Lynn, Massachusetts, along with offices in the UK, Poland, Mexico, and India, Belcan is located close to some of GE Aerospace's largest facilities and provides solutions to GE Aerospace around the globe.
