Cognizant Named to Fortune's Modern Board 25 List for 2023

May 10, 2023 - Cognizant announced today it has been named to the Fortune Modern Board 25 list for 2023. Cognizant, the multi-national IT and consulting company, received this award based on criteria that include the expertise, independence, diversity, and tenure of its board membership. The award states that companies like Cognizant are setting themselves up strategically for long-term, sustainable growth during a particularly challenging business environment. To measure this, Fortune collaborated with the Diligent Institute, the research arm and think tank of the global corporate-governance software company Diligent, to develop a unique and data driven ranking system.

The awards list was announced on May 10, 2023 and can currently be viewed on the Fortune website.
