Cognizant completes acquisition of Thirdera, creating one of the world's largest, most credentialed ServiceNow partners

Cognizant has completed its acquisition of Thirdera, an Elite ServiceNow Partner specializing in advisory, implementation and optimization solutions related to the ServiceNow platform, effective January 22, 2024.

With a strong focus on emerging enterprise workflow products, the combined strengths of Thirdera and the Cognizant ServiceNow Business Group are expected to offer clients one of the most comprehensive experiences in the ServiceNow ecosystem, with robust capabilities in professional services across key ServiceNow workflows, including generative AI. Headquartered in Broomfield, Colo., the acquisition adds more than 940 employees across North America, Europe and other locations.

Read more about Cognizant’s acquisition of Thirdera, which is expected to further efforts on the path of Cognizant and ServiceNow's strategic partnership to build a $1 billion combined business focused on AI-driven automation.

https://news.cognizant.com/cognizant-thirdera-acquisition-complete2